Q1. a) “Extreme Poverty is not inevitable” Explain this statement in the context of human rights. (10 marks)

b) Outline the various aspects of the common good according to Josef Hofner. (10 marks)

c) Trace the international, regional and domestic sources of any human right of your choice. (10 marks)

Q2. a) State in full the names of any six human rights treaty bodies. (6 marks)

b) Prepare a stakeholder report to the CESCR on the human rights situation of an informal settlement in Nairobi with regard to a specific right of your choice. (14 marks)

Q3. a) Briefly explain the key principles for engaging persons living in extreme poverty. (8 marks)

b) With reference to any ESCR, illustrate how you would empower people living in extreme poverty. (12 marks)

Q4. Describe the mandate and process of any human rights mechanism. (20 marks)
Q5. From your learning in this course, analyze the knowledge points of anyone who adopts a rights based approach to their service. (20 marks)

END