Question 2

With case examples, discuss the multiple levels in which counselling is applied in our society today. (23.3 Marks)

Question 3

Research shows that there is a rise in erratic behaviours among children and adolescents in school setting. In your opinion, explain possible reasons for this. (23.3 Marks)

Question 4

Martha is a school counsellor who notices that one little boy in kindergarten often wears the same clothes and appears unkempt and untidy. This little boy is not one of Martha's child clients, but she feels pulled to intervene. Martha decides to make a house visit. She eventually discovers that this little boy's family has been homeless. Martha locates a housing shelter that accepts the family and will work with the mother in applying for employment.

Examine Martha's roles in this case. (23.3 Marks)

Question 5

With a case example, explain reasons why a university student situation may warrant referral to the Counselling Service of the university. (23.3 Marks)
